

Disclosures

PRIVACY POLICY

Premier Bank has always valued its customers' privacy in the very highest regard. We have protected your confidential information in many ways over the years, and will continue to do so. We never lose sight of the fact that our customers' trust is our most treasured asset. You can be assured that our focus is the protection of your privacy in your dealings with us. If you ever have any questions about the confidentiality of your information in our hands, please feel free to discuss the matter with us. We appreciate your business.

We are required by law to provide the following information to you concerning consumer financial privacy:

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from:

- Information we receive from you on applications and other forms;
- Information we receive from processing your accounts with us and the transactions in those accounts, such as deposit accounts and loans as well as information that we receive from providing services to you, such as trust services;
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency (commonly known as a credit bureau);
- Information that we receive in response to requests we make to third parties about you or to confirm information that you have provided to us, particularly in the process of evaluating applications for loans.

We may share the above information about our customers or former customers with third parties as permitted by law. We may also share the above information with companies that perform marketing services on our behalf, such as check printing companies.

It is the policy of Premier Bank to assure that the information it has about its customers is accurate. It is also the policy of Premier Bank that information it has about its customers is highly confidential and is only available to those employees who have a need for the information to properly service a customer's account, act upon a customer's request or to fulfill that person's job responsibility.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

You may contact us at (712)-476-9100 regarding any questions you have about this policy.

THANK YOU FOR BANKING WITH US!
